3 January 2018

There are three entities in the Universe with which man has to deal: God, nature and man. Of course, God is to be worshipped by man, to be realised by man through nature. Nature is the name for all the various items that impress upon man the glory and the splendour of God.

Sathya Sai Baba, 27th March 1967

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Om Sri Sai Ram.

We are happy to announce that a Go Green Conference will be held in Prasanthi Nilayam during 25–26 July 2018.

With an aim to bring the SSIO community together and build on the spiritual foundation for man's relationship with nature, conference delegates can enjoy uplifting talks, and participate in workshops, networking opportunities and interact with subject matter experts on the environment.

Based on the teachings of Sathya Sai Baba, the two-day conference will be a source of spiritual enrichment, and provide information on practical tips, public outreach methods, scientific and technical advances, resources and insights. An exhibition will also showcase projects implemented by Sathya Sai Centres/Groups and Young Adults around the world.

Registration will open on 21 January 2018. For more information, please contact: events@sathyasai.org or visit www.sathyasai.org/events

Thank you.

Lovingly in the Service of Sai,

Narendranath Reddy, MD

Chairman, Prasanthi Council
